If all the members of the Board of Managers are present at any meeting of the Board, no notice shall be required and any business may be transacted at such meeting.

Section 12. Quorum of Board of Managers. At all meetings of the Board of Managers, the presence of at least six (6) of the members thereof shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, and the affirmative votes of five (5) of the members of the Board of Managers present at a meeting at which a quorum is present shall constitute the decision of the Board of Managers. If at any meeting of the Board of Managers there shall be less than a quorum present, a majority of those present may adjourn the meeting from time to time. At any such adjourned meeting at which a quorum is present, any business which might have been transacted at the meeting originally called, may be transacted without further notice.

Section 13. Board of Managers and Committee Action by Conference Telephone. Any one or more members of the Board of Managers, or of any committee established by the Board, may participate in a meeting of such Board or committee by means of a conference telephone or similar equipment which allows all persons participating in the meeting to hear each other at the same time. Any person who was or is a party or threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (other than an action by or in the right of the Condominium) by reason of the fact that he or she is or was a member, officer, employee or agent of the Condominium or its Board of Managers or is or was serving at the request of the Condominium as a director, officer or agent of a corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise (including employee benefit plans) (hereinafter "indemnitee") shall be indemnified and held harmless by the Condominium to the fullest extent authorized by laws of the State of New York, as the same exist or may hereafter be amended (but in the case of any such amendment, only to the extent that such amendment permits the Condominium to provide broader indemnification than permitted prior thereto) against expenses (including attorney's fees), judgments, fines, and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by such indemnitee in connection with such action, suit or proceeding, if the indemnitee acted in good faith and in a manner he or she reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Condominium, and with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe such conduct was unlawful. The termination of the proceeding, whether by judgment, order, settlement, conviction or upon plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent, shall not, of itself, create a presumption that the person did not act in good faith and in a manner which he or she reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Condominium and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had reasonable cause to believe such conduct was unlawful. Any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party or any threatened, pending or completed action or suit by or in the right of the Condominium to procure a judgment in its favor by reason of the fact that he or she is or was a member, officer, employee or agent of any corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise (including employee benefit plans) shall be indemnified and held harmless by the Condominium to the fullest extent authorized by the laws of the State of New York, as the same exists may hereafter be amended (but in the case of any such amendment, only to the extent that such amendment permits the Condominium to provide broader indemnification that permitted prior thereto), against expenses (including attorney's fees), actually and reasonably incurred by him or her in connection with the defense of settlement of such action or suit if he or she acted in good faith and in a manner he or she reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Condominium and except that no indemnification shall be made in respect of any claim, issue or matter as to which such person shall have been adjudged to be liable to the Condominium unless and only to the extent that the Court in which such suit or action was brought, shall determine, upon application, that, despite the adjudication of liability but in view of all the circumstances of the case, such person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity for such expenses which such court shall deem proper.

All reasonable expenses incurred by or on behalf of the indemnitees in connection with any suit, action or proceeding may be advanced to the indemnitees by the Condominium.

The rights to indemnification and to advancement of expenses conferred in this Section shall not be exclusive of any other right which any person may have or hereafter acquire under any statute, agreement, vote of unit owners or disinterested members of the Board of Managers or otherwise.

The indemnification and advancement of expenses provided by this article shall continue as to a person who has ceased to be a member of the Board of Mangers, officer, employee or agent and shall inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors and administrators of such person.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Board of Managers may, in its discretion, direct the selection of counsel in the first instance with the agreement of the person to be indemnified.

The Board of Managers shall from time to time, and at least annually, prepare a budget for the Condominium, determine the amount of the Common Charges payable by the Unit Owners to meet the Common Expenses of the Condominium, and allocate and assess such Common Charges among the Unit Owners according to their respective Common Interests. The Common Expenses shall include, among other things, the cost of all insurance premiums on all policies of insurance required to be or which have been obtained by the Board of Managers pursuant to the provisions of Section 2 of this Article V and an amount for the repayment, on an annualized proportional basis, of any short or long term obligation of the Condominium. The Common Expenses may also include such amounts as the Board of Managers may deem proper for the operation and maintenance of the Property, including, without limitation, an amount for working capital of the Condominium, for the maintenance of any Units held since the inception of the Condominium by the Board of Managers on behalf of all Unit Owners, for a general operating reserve, for a reserve fund for replacements, and to make up any deficit in the Common Expenses for any prior year. Sales, Leases and Mortgages of Units

Section 1. Sales and Leases.

(a) No Unit Owner may sell his Unit or any interest therein except by complying with the following provisions:

Any Unit Owner who receives a bona fide offer (hereinafter called an "Outside Offer") for the sale of his Unit or, to the extent permitted by the Declaration, a portion of his Unit together with: (i) the undivided interest in the Common Elements appurtenant thereto; (ii) the interest of such Unit Owner in any units theretofore acquired by the Board of Managers, or its designee, on behalf of all Unit Owners, or the proceeds of the sale or lease thereof, if any; and (iii) the interest of such Unit Owner in any other assets of the Condominium, (hereinafter collectively called the "Appurtenant Interests"), which he intends to accept, shall give notice to the Board of Managers of such offer and of such intention, the name and address of the proposed purchaser, the terms of the proposed transaction and such other information as the Board of Managers may, reasonably require, and shall offer to sell such Unit, or portion thereof, together with the Appurtenant Interests, to the Board of Managers, or its designee, corporate or otherwise, on behalf of the owners of all other Units, or a purchaser chosen and previously approved by the Board who shall not be a designee of the Board of Managers, on the same terms and conditions, except as provided below, as contained in such Outside Offer. The giving of such notice shall constitute a warranty and representation by the Unit Owner who has received such offer, to the Board of Managers on behalf of the other Unit Owners, that such Unit Owner believes the Outside Offer to be bona fide in all respects. Within thirty (30) days after receipt of such notice, (which notice shall not be effective unless the Unit is in compliance with all governmental and Summer Club rules and regulations), the Board of Managers may elect, subject to the provisions of the Declaration if a portion of a Unit, by notice to such Unit owner, to purchase such Unit or portion of a Unit, together with the Appurtenant Interests, (or to cause the same to be purchased by its designee, corporate or otherwise), on behalf of all other Unit Owners, on the same terms and conditions as contained in the Outside offer and as stated in the notice from the offering Unit Owner. The Board of Managers may also elect, subject to the provisions of the Declaration if a portion of a Unit, to provide a purchaser of the Board's choosing who shall not be a designee of the Board but who shall be chosen from a list maintained by the Board of pre-approved purchasers, who shall purchase the Unit, or portion thereof, on the same terms and conditions as contained in the Outside offer and as stated in the notice from the offering Unit Owner with the exception that any purchase by a purchaser of the Board's choosing shall not be subject to any financing contingency. In the event the Board of Managers shall elect to purchase such Unit, or portion thereof, together with the Appurtenant Interests, or to provide a purchaser of the Board's choosing, or to cause the same to be purchased by its designee, corporate or otherwise, title shall close at the office of the attorneys for the condominium one hundred twenty (120) days after the giving of notice by the Board of Managers of its election to so accept such offer. At the closing, the Unit Owner shall convey the Unit to the Board of Managers or to its designee, on behalf of all other Unit Owners, or to the purchaser of the Board's choosing, by deed in the form required by Section 339-0 of the Real Property Law of the State of New York, with all transfer stamps affixed, and shall pay all other taxes arising out of such sale. Real estate taxes, mortgage interest and Common Charges shall be apportioned between the Unit Owner and the Board of Managers, or its designee, or its chosen purchaser, as of the closing date. In the event the Board of Managers, its designee or its chosen purchaser shall fail to accept such offer within thirty (30) days as aforesaid, the offering Unit Owner shall be free to contract to sell such Unit, together with the Appurtenant Interests, within sixty days after the expiration of the period in which the Board of Managers, its designee or chosen purchaser might have accepted such offer, to the outside Offeror, on the terms and conditions set forth in the notice from the Offering Unit Owner to the Board of Managers of such Outside Offer. Any such deed to an Outside Offeror shall provide that the acceptance thereof by the grantee shall constitute an assumption of the provisions of the Declaration, the By-Laws and the Rules and regulations, as the same may be amended from time to time. In the event the offering Unit Owner shall not, within such 60 day period, contract to sell such Unit, together with the Appurtenant Interests, to the Outside Offeror on the terms and conditions contained in the Outside Offer, or if the Unit Owner shall so contract to sell his Unit within such sixty day period, but such sale shall not be consummated pursuant to the terms of such contract, then should such offering Unit Owner thereafter elect to sell such Unit, together with the Appurtenant Interests, to the same or another Outside Offeror on the same or other terms and conditions, the offering Unit Owner shall be required to again comply with all of the terms and provisions of this Section 1 of this Article VII.

than two (2) weeks nor shall there be more than two (2) such two-week rentals by a Unit Owner in any one calendar year, nor more than three (3) total rentals by a Unit Owner during the Memorial Day through Labor Day period, nor more than four (4) total rentals by a Unit Owner in any one calendar year.

Any Unit Owner who receives a bona fide offer for a lease of his Unit which he intends to accept shall give notice to the Board of Managers of such offer and of such intention, the name and address of the proposed lessee, the terms of the proposed lease, references, and such other information as the Board of Managers may reasonably require and shall request that the Board consent to such lease. Simultaneously with providing the Board of Managers with the notice of intention to lease the Unit Owner shall submit to the Board (1) a security deposit, returnable at the end of the lease, except as provided herein, in an amount equal to ten (10%) percent of the total rent to be paid by the lessee under the terms of the proposed lease; a processing fee of $100. per rental will be charged and (3) an indemnification and hold harmless agreement executed by the Unit Owner in favor of the Summer Club Condominium agreeing to indemnify and hold harmless the Condominium with respect to all costs, claims and expenses, including reasonable legal fees, incurred by the Condominium in enforcing any requirement of this Article VII Section 1(b) or in the event any other provisions of these By-Laws regarding the use or occupancy of the Unit is violated during the term of the proposed lease. The Board of Managers shall have fifteen days after receipt of such notice to grant or deny its consent to such lease. No Unit Owner shall enter into any lease unless such Unit Owner has received the consent of the Board of Managers. If consent is granted such lease must be executed, if at all, within sixty days of the granting of such consent.

Any such lease shall be consistent with these By-Laws and shall provide that it shall be for a term of not less than two (2) weeks, that it may not be modified, amended, extended or assigned, without the prior consent in writing of the Board of Managers, that the tenant shall not sublet the demised premises, or any part thereof, without the prior consent in writing of the Board of Managers, that the Unit shall be rented and operated as a single family dwelling, that the Board of Managers shall have power to terminate such lease and/or to bring summary proceedings to evict the tenant in the name of the landlord thereunder, in the event of default by the tenant in the performance of such lease, and that the Board of Managers shall have the right to terminate the lease on not less than 30 days' prior written notice upon foreclosure of the lien granted by Section 339-z of the Real Property Law of the State of New York. Any such actions shall be taken at the expense of the Unit Owner. The Board of Managers may draw on the security deposit funds to meet such expenses but is not required to do so. Except as hereinbefore set forth, the form of any such lease of a Residential Unit shall be the then current form of residential lease recommended by The Real Estate Board of New York, Inc., with such modifications as shall be approved in writing by the Board of Managers.

Any purported lease of a Unit in violation of this Section shall be voidable at the election of the Board of Managers and if the Board should so elect, the Unit Owner shall be deemed to have received any and all rental payments in trust for the condominium and shall be required to pay such sums to the Condominium upon demand and the Unit Owner shall be deemed to have authorized and empowered the Board of Managers to institute proceedings to evict the purported tenant in the name of said Unit Owner as the purported landlord.

Any purported sale of a Unit in violation of this Section shall be voidable at the election of the Board of Managers.

For the purposes of this Article VII of the Bylaws and Article 13 of the Declaration only, the Appurtenant Interests shall be deemed to include the Unit Owner's shares in Summer Club Condominium. Any such deed, mortgage, or other instrument purporting to affect one or more of such interests, without including all such interests, shall be deemed and taken to include the interest or interests so omitted, even though the latter shall not be expressly mentioned or described therein. No part of the Appurtenant Interests of any Unit may be sold, transferred or otherwise disposed of, except as part of a sale, transfer or other disposition of the Unit to which such interests are appurtenant, or as part of a sale, transfer or other disposition of such part of the Appurtenant Interests of all Units. Notwithstanding anything above to the contrary, a Unit Owner may convey a part of his Unit, together with a proportional share of its Appurtenant Interests, as permitted by the Declaration establishing the Summer Club Condominium.

A certificate executed and acknowledged by the Secretary of the Condominium, stating that the provisions of Section 1 of this Article VII have been met by a Unit Owner, or have been duly waived by the Board of Managers, and that the rights of the Board of managers thereunder have terminated, shall be conclusive upon the Board of Managers and the Unit Owners in favor of all persons who rely thereon in good faith. Such certificate shall be furnished to any Unit Owner who has in fact complied with the provisions of Section 1 of this Article VII or in respect to whom the provisions of such Section have been waived, upon request. The Board of Managers may set a reasonable fee to be charged for furnishing such certificate.

Acquisition of Units by the Board of Managers, or its designee, on behalf of all Unite owners, may be made from the working capital and Common Charges in the hands of the Board of Managers, or if such funds are insufficient, the Board of Managers may levy an assessment against each Unit Owner in proportion to his ownership in the Common Elements, as a Common Charge, which assessment shall be enforceable in the same manner as provided in Section 6 and 7 of Article V, or the Board of Managers, in its discretion, may borrow money to finance the acquisition of such Unit provided, however, that no financing may be secured by an encumbrance or hypothecation of any property other than the Unit, together with the Appurtenant Interest, so to be acquired by the Board of Managers.

Section 7. Exceptions. The provisions of Section 1 of this Article VII shall not apply with respect to (a) any sale or conveyance or lease by a Unit Owner of his Unit, together with the Appurtenant Interests, to his spouse or to any of his adult children or to his parent or parents or his brother or sisters, or any one or more of them, or (b) the acquisition, sale or lease of a Unit together with the Appurtenant Interests, by a mortgagee who shall acquire title to such Unit by foreclosure or by deed in lieu of foreclosure, or (c) a sale or lease of a portion of a Unit to a Unit Owner who owns a Unit adjoining on its longest side the portion of the Unit to be conveyed.

Section 8. Gifts and Devises, etc. Any Unit Owner shall be free to convey or transfer his Unit by gift, or to devise his Unit by will or to pass the same by intestacy, without restriction.

Section 12. Sale of Units Owned by Condominium. The sale of any Units owned by the Condominium, whether initially owned by the Condominium or subsequently acquired by the Board of Managers through exercise of the right of first refusal, foreclosure of lien for Common Charges or otherwise, may take place only after approval by the Board of Managers with not less than six members voting in favor of such sale and subsequent approval by the Unit Owners by affirmative vote of 75% of the Unit Owners in attendance at a duly held meeting called for such purpose.
